

Jamie Farnham

Director of Credit Research

- > Jamie Farnham leads MetWest's team of credit analysts and oversees the firm's proprietary credit research process. He co-manages the High Yield Bond Fund. Jamie is a member of the credit committee that determines buy/sell strategies for corporate bonds, both investment grade and high yield. In addition, Jamie conducts credit research in the utility and energy sectors. Prior to joining MetWest in 2002, Jamie was an investment associate at Primus Capital, where he focused on private equity investment. At Merrill Lynch in New York, he was an investment banking analyst working on new issue origination of equity and fixed income securities, as well as mergers and acquisition.

Jamie Farnham holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Princeton University and an M.B.A. from UCLA Anderson.

© 2009 Metropolitan West Asset Management LLC